

NAME * ROLE

Kari Chaudhry, Social Impact Investor

Episode Notes

KEY IDEAS

1. We need to change our approach to philanthropy to include more tools, such as social impact investing.
2. Women continue to be underrepresented in finance and in organisational leadership, until this truly changes, nothing changes.
3. We must educate the next generation of women and girls on how to be confident in their financial resources and wealth.

QUOTE

The whole supply and manufacturing side of being a fashion brand and designer really opened my eyes as to how much work we need to do to save this planet.
